LEADERSHIP CORNER

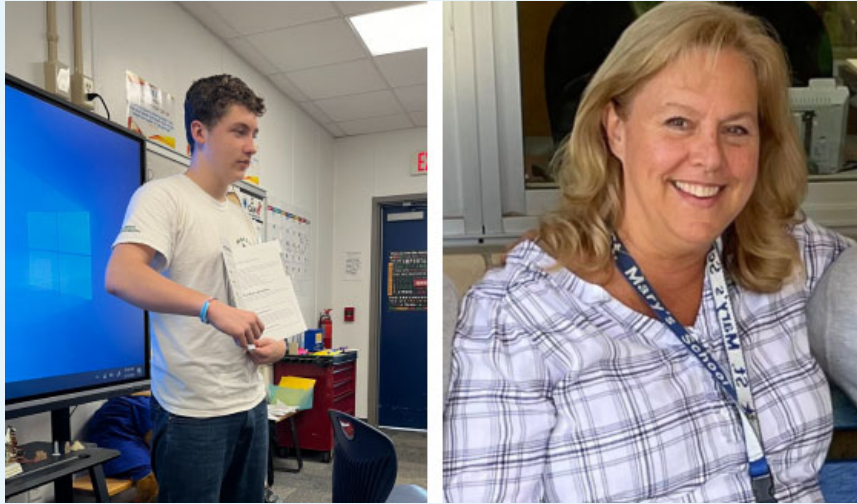

Administrators, encourage your clubs to create a plan to prepare, complete and submit their entries for this year's Builders Club awards and contests! Completing the club's Annual Achievement Report is part of the process. The submission deadline for all awards and contests is April 1 — just over two months away!

TELL YOUR STORY

What does a year in the life of a Builders Club look like? Your club can share its story by completing the Annual Achievement Report. Using this report to tell your story also helps you track the club's activities and document its achievements. Builders Clubs can earn a Distinguished Club or Honor Club Award by earning points for conducting recommended service and leadership activities for officers, members and clubs. Learn how to complete and submit the report by the April 1 deadline.

CELEBRATE ADVISORS AND OFFICERS

Awards mean individual recognition as well! If your club's advisor or any officer is outstanding, consider nominating them for a distinguished award. The Builders Club Awards and Contests Guide contains information about these awards. Here's inspiration from several of last year's Distinguished Officers and Advisors.

ENTER YOUR ADVOCACY POSTER

Some of your service projects have advocacy at heart. Advocacy is educating people about a cause and asking them to support it. Participate in the Builders Club Poster Contest by submitting posters your club created to educate others about a cause and ask them to take action. Take a look at a winning poster from last year — from Marco, a member at Louise Van Meter Elementary School K-Kids in Los Gatos, California, U.S.

BUILDERS CLUB WEEK

Builders Club Week will be here soon! From February 24-28, members will teach the community about the Builders Club program and celebrate their own club. Review each day's theme and plan your club's activities around them.
